About KLM Soccer Club

Kensington Little Mountain Soccer Club is a community-driven club dedicated to fostering player development, teamwork, and sportsmanship. We offer programs for players from U4 to U18, including recreational, divisional, and academy-level training. As we prepare for the upcoming season, we are seeking passionate and committed coaches to join our team and help shape the next generation of soccer players.

Job Responsibilities

- Plan and lead engaging training sessions in alignment with KLM's development philosophy.
- Foster a positive and inclusive team environment that encourages player growth and confidence.
- Provide constructive feedback to players to help them improve their technical and tactical skills.
- Ensure all players receive equal opportunities for participation and development.
- Communicate effectively with parents, players, and club staff regarding schedules, expectations, and progress.
- Attend games, tournaments, and club meetings as required.
- Adhere to club policies, including safety procedures and code of conduct.

Qualifications & Requirements

- Prior coaching experience in youth soccer (preferred but not required).
- Minimum NCCP Fundamentals or Soccer for Life certification (or willingness to obtain).
- Strong leadership, communication, and interpersonal skills.
- Passion for working with young athletes and fostering a positive soccer experience.
- Ability to commit to scheduled training sessions and games throughout the season.
- First Aid & CPR certification (preferred).
- Criminal Record Check with Vulnerable Sector Screening (mandatory before starting).

Compensation & Benefits

- Pay Range: $20-$35 per hour, based on experience and qualifications.

- Additional Earnings: Opportunities to earn more during tournaments and special events.
- Development Opportunities: Access to coach development and certification programs.
- Supportive Environment: Work within a well-established and community-driven soccer club.
- Impact: Make a meaningful difference in young athletes' lives.
