

CMHA Jr. Chaos Female Program – Parent Expectations

As a parent of a player in the CMHA Jr. Chaos Female Program, your support, involvement, and understanding are essential to creating a successful season both on and off the ice. The following outlines key expectations, responsibilities, and guidelines to help set your player and their team up for success.

1. Commitment to Volunteering

Parent participation is critical to the success of the Jr. Chaos program. Families are expected to:

- Volunteer for team-related duties such as scorekeeping, timekeeping, penalty box support, and other game-day roles.
- Assist during evaluation week with check-in, bench assignments, and related responsibilities.
- Support CMHA-hosted female events and tournaments by filling necessary volunteer roles.
- Fulfill additional team-assigned duties throughout the season (e.g., apparel coordination, team communications, organizing team events, etc.).

Your involvement ensures a positive experience for players and helps build a strong, supportive community around the program. For more information please review the Team Commitment Policy - formerly known as Volunteer Bond

2. Additional Financial Commitment (“Cash Call”)

In addition to registration fees, each Jr. Chaos family should anticipate a team “cash call” to cover team-specific expenses not included in standard registration. These may include:

- Tournament entry fees
- Team meals and snacks

- Hotel accommodations for travel tournaments (if applicable)
- Team-building activities
- Additional ice time
- Extra apparel or customized team items

All financial contributions will be managed transparently by the Team Manager and/or Treasurer, with regular reporting provided to families.

3. What Your Jr. Chaos Registration Fees Cover

Your registration fees include:

- Game ice
- Practice ice
- Referee costs
- Player development programming (as applicable)
- Coach development and support
- Game socks Home and away
- League fees and administration

- Team photos

- Evaluations and team balancing

This ensures that the core costs of your child's hockey season are covered without unexpected major financial obligations.

4. Evaluations & Team Formation

- Arrival Times: Players must arrive 30 minutes prior to scheduled ice time and be ready for their scheduled evaluation session.

- Team Placement: Evaluations are designed to rank players and place them on teams accordingly, ensuring competitive balance and player development.

- Volunteer Requirement: Parent support during evaluations (check-in, timekeeping, bench duties and support etc.) is required to ensure a smooth process.
 - Jersey Information: REP, RHL, Jr. Chaos (Female) & Intro to Hockey evaluations, players are required to bring both a black jersey and a white jersey to every evaluation skate. Jerseys must be plain, without names or logos, to ensure a fair and unbiased evaluation process.

6. CMHA Core Values

As a Jr. Chaos parent, you are expected to model and support CMHA's core values:

We treat teammates, opponents, coaches and officials with dignity and kindness, both on and off the ice. Respect creates a team culture.

RESPECT

We give our best every shift, every practice, and every game. Success is built on consistent hard work.

EFFORT

We approach challenges with positivity, sportsmanship, and resilience. A strong attitude drives growth and team spirit.

ATTITUDE

We bring our best to every battle, no matter the score. Competing with heart strengthens character and teamwork.

COMPETE

We represent our community with pride and integrity. Every action reflects our commitment to the game and each other.

HONOR

7. Closing Message

A reminder to use the team's communication channels respectfully and follow the proper process when raising concerns. We kindly remind all parents to respect the 24-Hour Rule by waiting at least one full day before addressing concerns, ensuring discussions happen with calmness and respect.

Thank you for your commitment to the Jr. Chaos Female Program. Your support enhances the hockey experience for your player while also strengthening the CMHA female program and community as a whole.

If you have any questions or require clarification, please reach out to your Team Manager or Female Program Director.
