Assistant Coaches: Corey McCrea, David Sabados, Kim Weiss, Justin Kraft

We are thankful for our coaching staff this past season. Our coaches emphasized accountability, discipline, teamwork, and player development, and the team responded exceptionally well. As the season progressed, the growth in confidence and physical play was evident. This group demonstrated resilience, commitment, and pride in representing Redcliff Minor Hockey both on and off the ice.

Throughout the season, the Grizzlies were competitive. The team played hard through several close games and showed the ability to respond to adversity while continuing to improve week after week.

The grizzlies had a successful home tournament as well as two away tournaments to Chestermere and Carstairs, securing bronze in all three.

Although playoffs concluded after two hard-fought games, the players continued to demonstrate character, effort, and sportsmanship until the final game of the season.

Beyond the ice, the success of the season was supported by a great group of parents, families, coaches and volunteers who dedicated countless hours to ensuring a positive experience for the players. Team activities, travel weekends, fundraising efforts, and team-building events all contributed to creating a strong sense of community and camaraderie within the group.

The players also represented RMHA with pride through their work ethic, leadership, and commitment to being positive role models within the organization. Their dedication to practices, and supporting younger Grizzlies players helped strengthen the overall hockey community in Redcliff.

A sincere thank you goes out to all coaches, volunteers, families, sponsors, and supporters whose contributions made this season possible. Most importantly, thank you to the players for their dedication, perseverance, and passion for the game. Watching this group develop and compete throughout the season was something the entire organization can be proud of. We will have five players moving up this season and we look forward to having our new u15s join us. Please watch our website and social media for the upcoming checking clinic this fall.
