

Sally McCullough

2002 Inductee - Athlete Category

Sally McCullough from the start was a gifted athlete, starting on a family team composed of her seven brothers and her sister, promise was shown early. At fourteen Sally ventured into organized softball for the very first time. Despite being just thirteen, with such promise and talent, Sally started at the Senior A level.

Over the next fifteen years Sally would play third base and be named league all-star thirteen times. In the last four years of her career Sally would transition to playing first base, earning two more all star selections. Sally played an impressive 21 seasons in the Senior A league, this in combination with numerous Provincial, Western and National Championships. Sally truly had a standout softball career that we are proud to recognize through her induction into the Softball BC Hall of Fame.
